

BY THE Lord Lieutenant and Council.

A PROCLAMATION

FOR Bringing in a proportion of Corn and Meal into His Majesties Stores, in lieu of part of the Subsidies payable to His Majestie.

OR MONDE,

Whereas there was an Act passed in the last Parliament held in this Kingdom, intituled, An Act for the grant of Eight intire Subsidies by the Temporality; which Eight Subsidies are by the said Act to be paid in four years, every of which Subsidies to amount unto Fifteen thousand pounds English; And whereas by the said Act the fifth Subsidy of the said Eight Subsidies is to be paid on or before the 24 day of June, in the year of our Lord God, One thousand six hundred sixty seven.

And whereas there was another Act passed in the said Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting Four intire Subsidies by the Temporality, for the defence of this His Majesties Kingdom; each of which said Four Subsidies to be Fifteen thousand pounds English; And whereas by the said last mentioned Act, the third Subsidy of the said Four Subsidies, is to be paid at or before the Twenty fifth day of June, in the year of our Lord God, One thousand six hundred sixty seven.

And whereas the Lord Lieutenant and Council do finde, that considering the present Market-Rates of Wheat and Barmeal in the several parts of this Kingdom, it will certainly be a great ease and advantage to the people, that not onely a part of the said fifth Subsidy of the said Eight Subsidies payable on or before the 24 day of June, 1667. but also a part of the

C

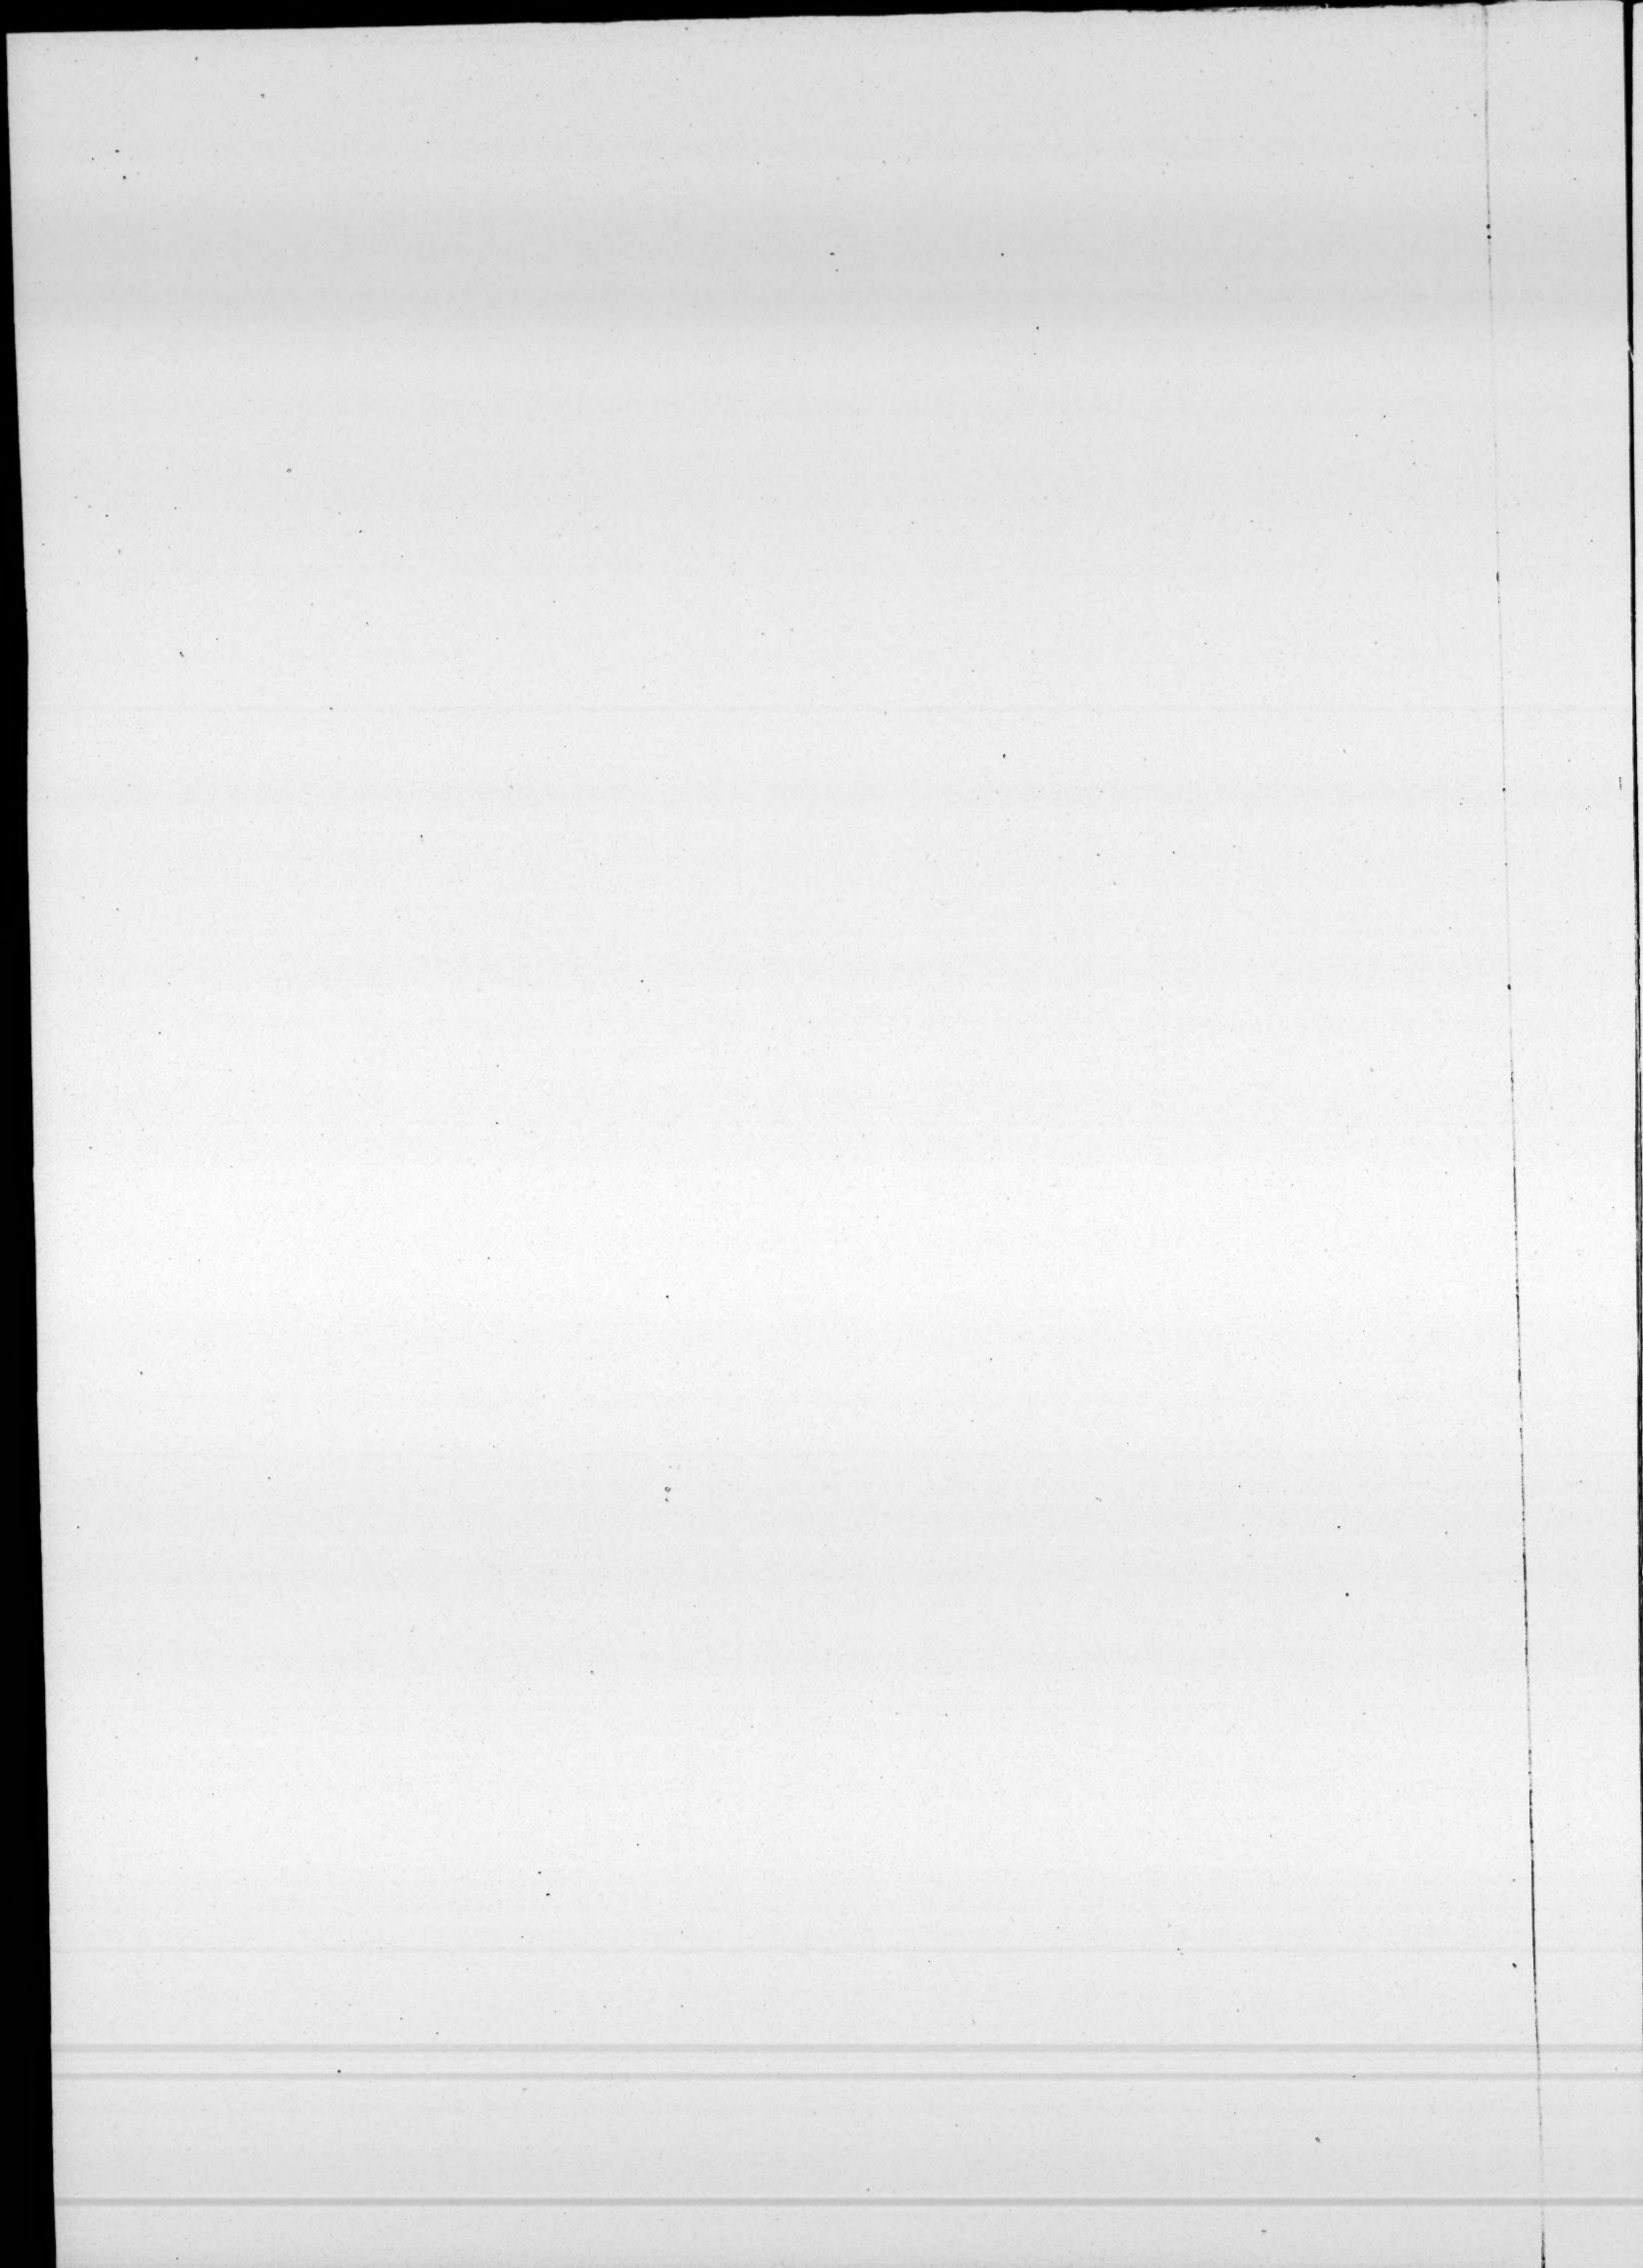

And

And We do hereby require His Majesties Commissioners to be appointed for assessing and plotting the said fifth Subsidy of the said Eight Subsidies, and the said third Subsidy of the said four Subsidies, or any two or more of the said Commissioners in each County respectively, with all convenient speed to meet, and ratably and proportionably to the said Subsidies, to distribute and assess the said quantities of wheat in each county, where wheat is to be brought in, and the said quantities of oatmeal in each county, where oatmeal is to be brought in, in part of the said Subsidies, upon all the persons and places charged, or to be charged in each county by the Commissioners with the payment of the said fifth Subsidy of the said Eight Subsidies, and the said third Subsidy of the said four Subsidies; And the said Commissioners that shall make the said distribution or assessment in each county as aforesaid, are to cause three books to be made thereof, containing the names of the persons and places on whom such assessments shall be so made, and the quantities of wheat or oatmeal so on every person or place assessed, and the sum of money according to the above rates to be allowed for the same, one of which three books, the said Commissioners that shall make the said Distribution or Assessment as aforesaid, are to deliver under their hands to the person that shall be appointed as aforesaid, at every Magazyn in such county to receive the said wheat, or oatmeal as aforesaid, that so he may know from whom, and in what proportion to receive the same from every person; and one other of the said three books, is by the said Commissioners to be delivered under their hands to the High Collector of the said Subsidies in that county; and the third book of the said three books, is by the said Commissioners to be sent under their hands into His Majesties Court of Exchequer; And We do order and require, all and every the persons to be so assessed, to deliver before the first day of May next, to the person that shall be appointed to receive the same at the Magazines for that county, the quantities and proportions of good, sound, dry merchantable wheat or oatmeal, to be so assessed on them as aforesaid. And the person that shall at any of the Magazines aforesaid, receive such wheat or oatmeal, is hereby required upon his receipt thereof, to give to the party that shall deliver, or cause the same to be delivered to him, a ticket in Writing under his hand, expressing for what person or place the same shall be so delivered, the quantity and proportion thereof, and the price and rate thereof, according to the rates herein above mentioned, And the High Collector of the said Subsidies in every county, is upon producing to him such tickets, to give his acquittance for the same, expressing therein the person or place for whom, or for which the same shall be delivered as aforesaid, the quantity or proportion so to be delivered to him, and the price and rate thereof as aforesaid, and expressing also therein, that the same is in part of payment of the said fifth Subsidy of the said eight Subsidies, and of the said third Subsidy of the said four Subsidies; And We do hereby declare, and accordingly require, that His Majesties Vice-Treasurer, upon producing such tickets as aforesaid, shall and do give to every of the said Collectors allowance thereof, upon their respective accounts of the said fifth Subsidy of the said eight Subsidies, and of the said third Subsidy of the said four Subsidies, And We do likewise order and require, That the surplus in money of the said fifth Subsidy, and third Subsidy, over and above the money that the price of wheat or oatmeal as aforesaid in each county shall amount unto, be duly received by the Collectors appointed to receive the same, and duly paid by them into the receipt of His Majesties Exchequer, pursuant to the said Acts, whereby the said Subsidies were granted, And although We have herein declared, from what counties wheat is expected, and from what counties oatmeal is expected, yet if any person or persons from whom wheat is expected, shall choose to bring oatmeal into any of the said Magazines, rather than wheat, We in favour of such persons, do hereby declare, That such person or persons may and shall have that liberty, yet so, as in such cases there be brought by them into such Magazines, such quantities of oatmeal, at the price and rates aforesaid, as may be in value at the rates aforesaid, answerable to the value of the wheat that should have been brought in by such person or persons as aforesaid: And We do hereby declare, That in case any of the persons from whom wheat is expected to be brought into the said Magazines as aforesaid, shall neglect to bring, or cause to be brought by the time aforesaid to the said Magazines, the wheat or oatmeal expected from them, and so not make use of the favour and benefit now by this our Proclamation intended for them, then and in such case, any other person or persons that shall by the last day of May next, bring wheat or oatmeal, or cause the same to be brought into any of the said Magazines as aforesaid, to compleat the full number by this Proclamation designed for such Magazine, shall have such price for the same, and to be allowed them in the same manner out of the said Subsidies, as the said other person or persons should or might have had.
